MARIKO OKUMURA

Previous Story

Pansy, orphaned as an infant, was raised by chimpanzees in the jungles of Africa. After returning to civilization, it was discovered that she was actually the long lost granddaughter of Earl Harvard. Upon the death of Harvard, Pansy became the rightful heir to his estate. Baron Burton coveted Pansy's inheritance and conspired with Wirald to burn the estate and eliminate Pansy. Shocked and devastated by the fire, Pansy lost her memory and escaped into the Black Forest. Edo has secretly left the palace to search for her. The amnesic Pansy has now joined a traveling circus troupe which is about to perform at the palace...
